All advertising is subject to the approval of the Editor-in-Chief, who jointly reserves the right to refuse any advertising content that doesn't meet standards of acceptability. However, the Editor will always have the final word on any content that is not accepted.

Standards of acceptability: no ads will be placed that promote unlawful activity, have false or misleading content, are fraudulent, dishonest or violate the laws of libel, privacy, copyright, trademark, trade names, patents or obscenity.

Insight Magazine may refuse to accept any copy not furnished before established deadlines, and should the Insight Magazine accept such late copy, no proof will be submitted to the Advertiser before publication and Insight Magazine will not accept liability for errors therein.

Insight Magazine assumes no responsibility for errors when a finished (camera-ready) artwork has been submitted by the Advertiser or if a proof has been submitted in advance of publication to the Advertiser, his/her agent or representative.

Any Advertiser failing to use the number of discounted column inches for which they have contracted will be required to pay the difference between the discounted rate and the open rate for all column inches used. The Advertiser shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless NSHE, its officers, employees, and agents from and against any and all liabilities, claims, losses, costs or expenses to the person or property, including but not limited to claims of libel, violations of privacy, infringement of any trademarks, copyrights, trade names, patents, and lawsuits, judgments, and/or expenses, including attorney fees, arising either directly or indirectly from any act or failure to act by the Advertiser, or any of its officers and employees, which may occur during or which may arise out of the performance of this agreement.

Insight Magazine does not guarantee position placement. However, requests will be honored whenever possible.

Advertisements resembling news items will be labeled as advertisements.

If the Editor rejects any ad(s), the Editor must let the advertiser know, so he or she can be contacted. New ad(s) may be sent for replacement or money refunded or not charged to the advertiser due to non-placement.

Ads that run incorrectly because the proof was returned by the Advertiser after deadline or not returned at all will be billed at the full value.

Ads that are in error due to the fault of Sagebrush Advertising will be discounted at the discretion of the Advertising Coordinator based on the error in question. Claims must be received in writing within 10 business days from the date of publication. Acceptable forms of payment are check, money order, visa, mastercard and internal purchase orders (for campus departments or organizations only). All clients require a credit card on file, unless they will be prepaying with a check. On-campus departments can include an IPO number in the credit card line if they choose to pay using university internal purchase orders.
